a timely and important study group:*

Health Maintenance in the Home: Is Nurse Delegation a Solution for Illinois?

Tuesday, February 13, 2007

9:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Room 932

University of Illinois at Chicago

School of Public Health

1603 W. Taylor Street

Chicago, Illinois 60612

Continental Breakfast 8:30 a.m.

Featured Panelists:

Vickie Sheets, JD, RN, CAE, National Council of State Boards of Nursing

Barbara Gaffke, PhD, APN, Illinois Nurses Association

Ron Benner, BSN, MBHA, RN, Lieberman Geriatric Health Centre

Nurse delegation is one of the strategies states have used to address the chronic care needs—including medication administration and assistance—of home and community-based, long-term care consumers. Could it work in Illinois? Join us for a panel discussion of the pros and cons of this policy alternative and of its potential for Illinois.
